W. R. SELICK & CO.--DRY GOODS, BOOTS AND SHOES.

WHEREVER WITHAL

---SHALL YE---

BE CLOTHED?

As the icy breath of Old Boreas sweeps around the corner, it carries that question right home to us. Humanity can no more stand such weather, unprotected, than can the Lillies of the field. Remember right now, that Flannels are cheaper than funerals, and that Underwear costs less than undertakers. Therefore, we say, come unto us, all ye who shiver and are lightly muffled, and we will warm you up

Local Department.

Francis Labadie is coming.
Oats wanted on subscription at this office.

Mrs. G. E. Chappell is visiting in Allegan.
We want a good correspondent at Gobleville.

Judge Heckert is entertaining an attack of rheumatism.

"Miralda, the Creole," at Longwell's next Thursday night.

Bert Bryar returned Tuesday from a week's visit in Jackson.

Miss Minnie Sellers of Jackson, Mich., is visiting Miss Kittie Fitch.

Gov. Rich has appointed Thursday, Nov. 29, as Thanksgiving day.

Born, on the 13th, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Dean, a boy baby. All well.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. L. H. Titus on Thursday, Nov. 22, at 2:30 p. m.

They all say that Tuckey's flour is ahead of anything in the State. It is a beauty.

The Bflat club will meet this evening at the Presbyterian church parlors at 7:15 o'clock sharp.

Miss Floy Snow Monday evening gave a party to about forty of her young lady friends.

Protracted meetings are in progress at the M. E. church, and a very lively interest is manifest.

Deil Pepper, for several years connected with the Courier, now holds a position on this paper.

Dr. Critchlow has been quite seriously indisposed for a week or more past, but is improving.

We are indebted to the publishers of The Youth's Companion for a beautifully illustrated calendar for 1895.

Our lady readers will be interested in the card of Mrs. L. A. Davison, dress maker, to be found on this page.

The rush is so great at Smith's great "whale" sale of clothing that they have no time to write poetry this week.

Elder Mutchler of Buchanan will occupy the pulpit at the Disciple church next Sunday, morning and evening.

The famous Francis Labadie alone is sufficient to fill Longwell's opera house to the doors.

With an entirely new and powerful company he will appear here Nov. 22, 23 and 24, the first night producing the great play of "Miralda, the Creole." Mr. Labadie is a prime favorite with our people and will be accorded a warm reception. Prices, 35 cents below; gallery 25 cents; children, 15 cents.

There is a party of three young people living in the southeast portion of the village, regular attendants at the evening church service now in progress, who had much better remain at home and do their whispering, giggling and note writing there. Of course they receive no benefit from the services--they don't go there for that purpose, and they annoy and disgust those who go there to worship.

"They tell not, neither do they spin," doesn't exactly apply to us mortals, for we all have to hustle to a certain extent if we would vie with Solomon in the gorgeousness of apparel. But Selick has added prices to his magnificent stock of capes, jackets and cloaks that reduces the hustle to the minimum and enables one to give Solomon a lively brush for a small outlay of cash. Read Selick's adv. carefully.

Trescott & Remington, proprietors of the evaporating works at this place, have purchased during the season just closing about 25,000 bushels of apples.

Aside from this, they have given steady employment for about three months, at fair wages, to fifty people. Their works are substantially built, equipped with all the modern appliances, and the business will be continued here so long as we are blessed with apple crops.

The calendar for the November term of the circuit court for this county comprises ten criminal cases, twenty-one issues of fact, three impeachments, six chancery--first class, one chancery--third class, eight chancery--fourth class--a total of forty-nine cases. Of the criminal cases, four are charged with violation of the local option law, two with assault with intent to murder, one with larceny, three with burglary. Of the chancery cases, five are for divorce.

O. W. Ludlow of Benton Harbor was tried at Allegan last week for the murder of Ira Hurd. There was not a scintilla of evidence against Ludlow, as we have repeatedly said before, and the jury promptly returned a verdict of not guilty. The crowd present cheered and Mrs. Ludlow fainted. The verdict gives general satisfaction at Allegan, where all the circumstances are known. The case against Mrs. Hurd is continued to the December term. She remains in jail in default of $10,000 bail.

One of the most intolerable nuisances of the present time is the prevailing one of "putting up" everything and anything at lottery. Horses, that could not be sold on the street at auction for ten dollars are thus disposed of for fifty or seventy-five dollars; bicycles, watches, shot guns, boxes of cigars, barrels of apples, bushels of beans, village lots, and so on to the end of the chapter of odds and ends, are put up, and hardly an hour of the day passes that people are not importuned to take a chance in these schemes for getting two or three prices for something of no practical value to its possessor. Let's have a rest.

Special attention is directed to the prospectus of the Inter Ocean, to be found on the 4th page of this issue. One of the ablest Republican papers on this continent, at the same time it is the paper for the counting room, the workshop and the home.

In noticing the death of Mrs. J. J. Woodman last week, the types made us say "Then came the expenses and self-denials of the sick room," etc., which should have read "Then came the experiences," etc. The error was an annoying one and we regret its occurrence exceedingly.

Miss Lora Glidden is getting on finely in her canvass for 1,000 subscribers for the Ladies' Home Journal. Names of new subscribers, or old ones who wish to renew, may be left, accompanied by the money, with Postmaster Noyes, and they will receive prompt attention and be credited to her quota.

A telegram was received here on Friday last announcing the death that day at his home in Hartford, Ct., of C. H. Smith Jr., a nephew of the late Capt. Edmund Smith of this place. Deceased will be better known to our people as the husband of Kittie Kemble, a sister of Mrs. C. R. Avery.

It is often said that farmers, as a class, are never ready for winter. The truth of this assertion is pretty well demonstrated by the fact, as claimed by themselves, that thousands of dollars have been lost to them in this county in the way of frozen potatoes and other farm products that are not yet harvested.

The S. H. & E. was off its feed again Tuesday, the forenoon train from the west, on board of which were a majority of the members of the county board of canvassers from the central and western part of the county, did not arrive here until about 5 p. m., which compelled that body to remain in session a good part of the night in order to finish its work.

At the recent annual meeting of the Van Buren county Pomona Grange, resolutions were adopted asking the legislators to amend the laws relative to drug stores so as to prevent the indiscriminate sale of liquor in local option counties, and to enact a law compelling persons found intoxicated to give information as to where they procured the liquor.

The nineteenth semi-annual apportionment of the primary school interest fund has been placed among the several counties of the state on the basis of the number of children of school age. The rate is 68 cents per capita. Van Buren county, with 8,978 children, gets $6,106.04; Paw Paw township, with 625 children, gets $425.00, while this school district, with 318 children, gets $216.24.

Last Saturday John Tangua got terribly tangled up by imbibing too much tangual foot. He worked himself into jail, where he remained until Monday morning, when Justice Warner assessed him two dollars and costs, which he paid.

A numerous party of invited guests assembled last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Julio Sheldon to witness the marriage of their daughter Jennie V. and Mr. Bert Gleason. THE NORTHERNER extends congratulations to the happy pair.

Judge Buck held a term of court Monday--the first day of the regular November term--for the purpose of entertaining motions, the arraignment of prisoners, and the disposal of such other business as might be transacted. Ryland Seeley pleaded guilty to violating the local option law and was sentenced to thirty days in jail. The information against Andrew West, charged with like offense, was quashed. Doers were granted in the following divorce cases: Frank S. Vincent vs. Anna Vincent; Jennie Messlin vs. Michael Messlin; Mary Meabon vs. George Meabon; Maggie Ray vs. Alonzo Ray. Court adjourned until to-day (Friday). The jury will be in attendance Monday.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Gov. Rich has issued the following proclamation:
In accordance with the time honored custom, I hereby appoint Thursday, Nov. 29, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer.

On that day the people of this state are requested to desist from secular pursuits and assemble at their respective places of worship and return thanks to the giver of every good and perfect gift for the blessings they enjoy.

When gathered around the family table, loaded with good things of every clime, do not forget the poor whom you have always with you and to whom a substantial remembrance on this day of peace and good cheer will soften to some extent the hard lines in which their lives are cast.

JOHN T. RICH.
